

Considering upgrading your ECG?

Let us introduce you to the HeartScreen range

Interpretive 12 lead PC Linked ECG Machines

The only conventional ECG that offers live real-time monitoring onto your PC enabling paperless viewing and archiving

- Printer and memory capabilities up to 25 ECGs
- View and print A4 ECG reports from PC
- ECG record can be stored and viewed in all major clinical software, including Vision, EMIS, Torex, ISOFT, System 1 and Microtest

FREE UNLIMITED TECHNICAL SUPPORT

FREE
DEMONSTRATION
AVAILABLE

HeartScreen 80 G-L

The most portable & flexible ECG machine for the GP environment

- Weight only 1.2kg
- Dimensions: 210 x 150 x 70mm
- 3-Channel Printer
- Mains and battery operation

HeartScreen 80 G-L

HeartScreen112 Clinic

12 Lead display on large coloured screen allows good quality ECG reading to be taken quickly and efficiently

- 112mm wide thermal printer, 6-channel printing
- A4 printing when connected to external printer (printer not included)
- Fully alphanumeric keyboard on the touch-screen
- Weight: 2.5kg
- Mains and battery operation

HeartScreen 112 Clinic

CardioLink Software

CardioLink Software allows easy transfer of ECG files into patient records

- Unlimited User Software Licence
- Cable used between PC and ECG machine is a robust generic RS232 cable with a USB adaptor, and can be supplied in any length at no additional charge.

MediSafe also supplies a range of medical equipment to suit the specific requirements of General Practice including defibrillators, spirometers and 24 hour BP monitors.

To book a demonstration, request a brochure or place an order, please contact us at the MediSafe office or visit our website www.medisafe.org.uk

